

DREAM TIME STORIES

Choose one of the characters, mimic their action and freeze.
Think of what your character might be thinking, or what they might say.
On signal from the teacher, share it with the class. Jot it on a whiteboard for later in the lesson.

DREAM TIME STORIES

Mimic the character's action and freeze.

Think of what your character might be thinking, or what they might say.

On signal from the teacher, share it with the class. Jot it on a whiteboard for later in the lesson.

DREAM TIME STORIES

Choose one of the characters, mimic their action and freeze.
Think of what your character might be thinking, or what they might say.
On signal from the teacher, share it with the class. Jot it on a whiteboard for later in the lesson.

DREAM TIME STORIES

Mimic the character's action and freeze.

Think of what your character might be thinking, or what they might say.

On signal from the teacher, share it with the class. Jot it on a whiteboard for later in the lesson.

DREAM TIME STORIES

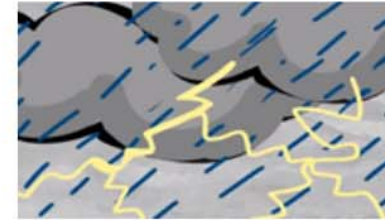

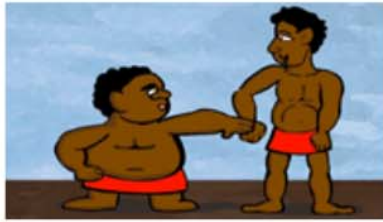

Mimic the character's action and freeze.

Think of what your character might be thinking, or what they might say.

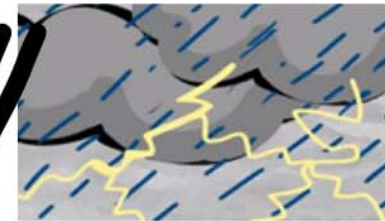

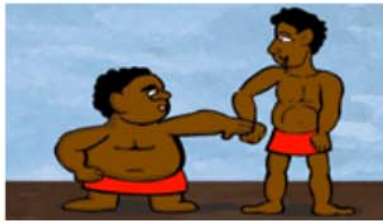

On signal from the teacher, share it with the class. Jot it on a whiteboard for later in the lesson.

As a class, discuss where new paragraphs might begin. Show with //.

Suggested position of new paragraphs:

Mirram the Kangaroo, and Warreen the Wombat

DREAM TIME STORIES

Using the pictures and speech you have noted, write the story of Mirram the Kangaroo, and Warreen the Wombat.

Remember to use punctuation correctly to show the speech and begin new paragraphs when the story moves on.

Mirram the Kangaroo, and Warreen the Wombat

