

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

As busy as a bee.
Busy like a bee.

The Sun smiled.

He was so hungry, he ate
a whole field of food.

You are what you eat.

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

Simile

Similes can have 2 structures..

As _____ as _____ .
_____ like a _____ .

As busy as a bee.
Busy like a bee.

A vehicle

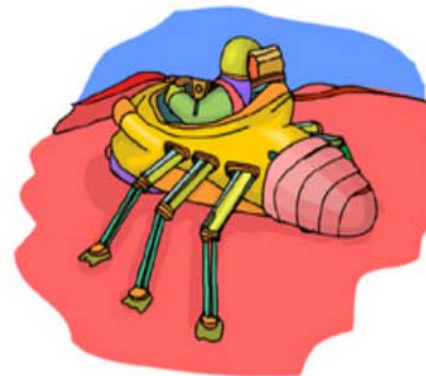

(Does it look...?)
that looks like a jeep.

A vehicle

(Does it have...?)
that has treads
like a tank.

A vehicle

(Does it crawl...?)
that crawls
like an insect.

A vehicle

(Does it drive...?)
that drives
like a car.

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

Metaphor

These are like similes, but you say they ARE something else, not LIKE something else.

You are what you eat.

Life is ...
a journey,
a dance,
a dream.

The moon is made of cheese.

She is a guardian angel.

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

Personification

Personification is when you describe something like it is a person.

The Sun smiled.

The tree waved
in the wind.

The angry sky struck down on the Earth.

The door welcomed them in.

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

Hyperbole

This is when you exaggerate (go over the top with) something to the point where it is untrue, but you make your point.

He was so hungry, he ate a whole field of food.

It was the greatest cake the world had ever seen.

The footballer went down as if he had been shot.

He had a million things to do.

Figurative Language

Different ways of comparing things using language

Simile

As _ as _ _ like a _ _

As busy as a bee.
Busy like a bee.

Metaphor

Something is something is else

You are what you eat.

Personification

Describe something as if it is a person

The Sun smiled.

Hyperbole

Exaggerate!

He was so hungry, he ate
a whole field of food.

Create some sentences describing this picture.

Some things to describe:

Snow

Trees

Mountains

Temperature

Night

You can imagine some other things if it helps.

